FOR SALE—ROBERT HENDERSON W AS ONE of the pioneer Scotchmen of Allegheny. For over & years he was engaged in stone work. Many of the substantial stone bridges and viaducts in Aliegheny county were of his construction. The same aspiration which led him to push his fortune in this Western country, led him to select as a home that prominence overlooking the city of Aliegheny known as Nunnery Hill—a name, by the way, altogether out of harmony with the beauty of the place. Columbia Heighta, or some other poetical name, would more fitly indicate its character. Well, on these heights Mr. Henderson erected a magnificent stone dwelling, a wonder in those days, although not long ago. Surrounding this house were beautiful grounds, in which the inmates of the stone house rejoiced in nature's beauties and obtained a lovely panoramic view of the town, river and hills.
The owner is gone, but the everlasting stone house and the grounds remain. The surveyors instruments have altered the dimensions of these grounds, but have not changed their beauty.
Fifty families can now enjoy what was originally meant for one. Around the stately mansion are most lovely lots for the erection of homes for the people. We cannot imagine a more desirable place for a modest, comfortable home. Even the vivid imagination of the newspaper reporter would receive a healthy impetus from the bracing air and delightful outlook of Henderson place.
We are now prepared to place them in the possession of buyers. Prices range from $500 to $1, 20 according to size and situation. We invite special attention and a visit to our office where plans can be seen. A. LEEGGATE & SONS, Agenta, 31 Federal st., Allegheny.
